Iowa International Center (IIC) Code of Conduct:

Basic Standard of Conduct

Participants in Iowa International Center(IIC) programs should observe standards of ethical conduct. During an IIC program, IIC Participants are diplomats of not only the US, Iowa, their organization, but also an extension of IIC. Participants are expected to carry out the goals of the program to the best of their ability and judgment and maintain standards of integrity. During the program participants should:

- Strive to promote mutual respect and understanding between Iowans and people from all cultures and countries
- Act openly, honestly, and in good faith
- Comply with all policies set out by Iowa International Center and follow the laws and customs of the host country.

Participants are expected to demonstrate professional behavior and exercise good judgment in their activities with the organization.

Prohibited Conduct

Serious misconduct by participants does not occur often, but all participants should be aware that disruptive behavior and dishonesty will not be tolerated.

The following list describes behavior that may subject participants to no longer be welcomed as part of the program:

- Dishonest, illegal or indecent conduct.
- Theft of organization property and/or property of others.
- Unauthorized possession, sale or use of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs during the IIC Program.
- Possessing firearms or dangerous weapons during the IIC Program
- Working or operating vehicles under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during the IIC Program.
- Harassing, cursing, threatening, assaulting, intimidating, or deliberately abusing hosts or fellow participants. Making offensive sexual, racial, ethnic, or religious slurs or insults. Use of profane or abusive language to embarrass, ridicule, or degrade another participant.
- Provoking or making a challenge into a fight, or engaging in a fight

The examples listed above are meant to illustrate various kinds of serious misconduct that will lead to disciplinary action. The list is not intended to be all inclusive. Iowa International Center reserves the right to dismiss participants if deemed the spirit of the “code of conduct” has not been followed.
